Dear [name],

Thanks for your enquiry. In order to help you, we need the full registration data for your .nl domain name. The data is held by SIDN, operator of the .nl domain. We can see it only if you give us access. You can do that by using a special form on SIDN's website:

<https://www.sidn.nl/en/request-registrant-details>.

After completing the form, you'll get an e-mail from SIDN with two links in it. The links give access to the registration data for your domain name. When you get SIDN's e-mail, please forward one of the links to us. We can then get the registration data and arrange for your domain name to be [transferred to us/reinstated/etc.]
